Table of Contents

p. 9 Prologue

13 Chapter 1
Introducing Regional Destination Branding. Main Issues and Challenges
1.1. Introduction, 13
1.2. Defining the concepts of Brand Identity and Destination Branding, 14
1.3. Developing Regional and Sub-Regional Destinations, 16
1.4. Regional branding from the Supply-Side Stakeholders: a participative approach, 18
1.5. Governance of Regional Destinations: established and emerging destinations, 22
1.6. Perspectives and structure of the book, 25

29 Chapter 2
The Influence of Public Stakeholders in Regional Branding
2.1. Introduction, 29
2.2. Destination branding and brand identity, 30
2.3. Case study: Branding the Piedmont Region, 32
2.4. Results, 38
2.5. Discussion and Conclusions, 48

53 Chapter 3
Private Stakeholders and the Communication of Place Identity in Regional Destinations
3.1. Introduction, 53
3.2. Place identity and stakeholder coordination, 55
3.3. Case Study: effects of the accommodation industry in Aosta Valley's place identity, 58
3.4. Results, 62
3.5. Discussion and Conclusions, 71

p. 75 Chapter 4
Involving Local Communities in Regional Brand Development
4.1. Introduction, 75
4.2. Residents and brand development, 77
4.3. Residents' perception and brand identity, 80
4.4. Case study: assessing residents' perception in Alto Piemonte, Italy, 83
4.5. Results, 86
4.6. Conclusions, 94

103 Conclusions
113 Bibliography